Downtown Senior Center

Dear Friends,

Thank you for attending the events in October and November. For all our volunteers, especially the Sunflower Woodworker's Guild, Kansas Ring Leaders, and our wonderful artists who assisted with the Final Friday event on October 28th, we thank you. Next time you are at the Downtown Center, walk down the main hallway and enjoy the beautiful pictures by our artists.

Among those volunteers and talented senior artists is Jerry Keen, who donated a beautiful chinese checker board and pieces to the Downtown Center. Thank you, Jerry!

It is your attendance and the assistance of dedicated volunteers which make these events possible.

October Final Friday Features Artists, Woodworkers And Clowns

A large crowd was on hand for the Downtown Senior Center Final Friday Oct. 28, which featured artworks by area artists, wood creations from the Sunflower Woodworkers Guild and fun by the Kansas Ringleaders Clown Alley group.

Visitors were impressed with the quality of creativity on display from the artists and woodworkers. The clowns kept those in attendance in stitches with their antics.

Many thanks to our sponsors The Spice Merchant, Kernel Korn and Prairie Homestead for making this event possible.

Ruby Toby demonstrates her porcelain pottery skills.

Woodwork by Jerry Keen. After the event, he donated the Chinese checker board to the Downtown Senior Center.

Author Sharon Lee Brown and Illustrator Sharon Revell were on hand to show their children's books.

Members of the Kansas Ringleaders Clown Alley.

Director's Notes

John and I finally have our power of attorneys, wills, and beneficiaries all in order. This is something we have needed to do. You can also get your affairs in order by coming to the presentations put on by Danielle, Kansas Legal Services and Cathleen Gulledge, Senior Legal Advisor. C. Gulledge is here the second Wednesday of each month to answer any questions you may have.

Next will be a review of our financial with Stan Webb. Come join us.

Put on your Christmas outfit and sweater and join Cherise and I for a Victorian Christmas Tea & Coffee with Marti McCartney, which will be held, Thursday, December 15th @ 2:30pm. Marti is a living history interpreter and will come in full Victorian dress to relive a Christmas of that time period. RSVP: 267.0197.

Meanwhile, go out and enjoy the month of December and have a wonderful and safe Christmas and New Year holiday....
